

A decorative flourish consisting of elegant, flowing lines in a light sage green color, framing the word 'HONOR'.

HONOR

FOR GOD SAID,

HONOR YOUR FATHER

AND MOTHER.

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

AS *y*OURSELF.

MATTHEW 19:19

TO HONOR

IS TO COMMIT

TO SOMETHING *P*RECIOUS.

BELOW ARE STORIES OF RESTHAVEN. WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN US IN HONORING OUR FATHERS & MOTHERS BY SUPPORTING OUR MISSION.

THE NEED HAS NEVER BEEN GREATER.
PLEASE CONSIDER A GIFT TODAY.

Photo 1

Gene HULSMAN loves farming – the sun, the soil, helping things grow. He farms so he can share. As a resident of the Good Shepherd Home, Gene is still farming. His prized tomatoes are enjoyed all summer by Resthaven residents and caregivers alike... and Gene is already planning next year's crop.

Photo 2

Jason COOK likes to keep busy. An Elder in the Vern & Lois Boersma Cottage, Jason asked to have his bed replaced by a workbench so he had a place to build and paint his birdhouses. He sleeps very well at night in his comfortable recliner, knowing his bird houses have put many smiles on faces of families throughout West Michigan.

Photo 3

Marilyn BAREMAN & Mary SWEARINGIN'S favorite things at the Resthaven Care Center are Bingo games, color tour excursions, and coffee with friends... but don't forget the cookies! These women shine with joy in this safe, loving environment – full of fun and activity – and the compassionate care they're entitled to. Cookies included.

Photo 4

Lexie MCGREGOR retired from her position as Activity Coordinator for Resthaven to volunteer for afternoons of Bingo fun with residents like Dixie Victor. It isn't just the Bingo... it's the prizes, companionship, and love of the volunteers that keeps residents coming back for more.

Photo 5

Art & Joyce WYMA have traveled all 50 states, but chose Warm Friend and downtown Holland as home. Glowing with love for each other, their neighbors, and the Christ-centered principles Resthaven is founded upon, Art and Joyce find comfort and security knowing they have Resthaven standing beside them.

Photo 6

Dan MUTSCHLER, or "Dan the Magic Man" can't wait to share his latest balloon creation with residents of Maple Woods. Dan volunteers each week, entertaining and loving the residents of Resthaven with his gifts of balloon animals and magic tricks.

Photo 7

Adeline DECKER loves her extended family at Maple Woods. She enjoys the food, church fellowship, crafts, and "wonderful people all around me". Judy Johnson, Resthaven At Home nurse loves looking out for those that can't look out for themselves. It's a match made in heaven.

Photo 8

Lisa HOEVE and her children Joshua, Samantha, Abigail, and baby Jack, a home school family, visit the Boersma Cottage each week blessing residents like Blenda Johns with laughter and smiles. In return, Lisa and her family are equally blessed.

Photo 9

Rev. Leigh BOELKINS VAN KEMPEN, Resthaven Chaplain, lives God's love in her service to seniors and their families. When the call-bell sounds, she runs from her office to help a resident in need. She doesn't wait for someone else. She answers the call. Like all at Resthaven, Leigh serves in the name of Christ, every day, honoring God by honoring the oldest of His children.

The Resthaven Care Community is a non-profit, community owned Christian mission dedicated to demonstrating the love and compassion of Jesus Christ to seniors.

compassion

love

9 East Eighth Street, Holland, MI 49423 ph 616-796-3500 www.resthaven.org